

Jami Hain: Singer, Prayer Warrior

Jami Hain, 40 something, was baptized in the Methodist Church at age 13. She has been a member of Windwood Presbyterian Church since 1996 where she met Kristen while singing with the Praise Team. God has gifted Jami with compassion, teaching, evangelism and a passion for singing.

As a member of Windwood, Jami has been involved in numerous ministries including Evangelism Council, Women's Ministries, Worship & Arts Council, ALPHA, A Servant's Heart (Windwood's Praise & Worship Team), Habitat for Humanity, Communion Guild and served on the Session as an Elder from 1999-2002. With her passion to spread the Good News,

Jami has used her gifts and talents outside the church walls not only through His Witness Ministries, but also by leading worship for ALPHA retreats, singing at nursing homes, leading worship for other church retreats and hurricane relief through Red Cross nursing.

Currently, Jami is a Mom, Wife, School Nurse, Doula, Birth Assistant and Breastfeeding Counselor. She enjoys singing, scrap booking, face-painting, volunteering and playing games with family & friends. Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths" is one of Jami's favorite scriptures. In her words, "I like knowing that I don't have to count on having all the answers ... I can trust that God has my best interest at heart and He will show me the way."

Jami would also like to share with others how much Kristen and His Witness Ministries have been a blessing in her life. "Kristen has been given such a precious gift in the music she writes and sings. To be part of helping her share that gift and the gift of God's love with others has been amazing. As an extra blessing, God has given me a very special friendship with Kristen that I deeply cherish. My prayer is that God will continue to bless others through this ministry and that He will multiply my gifts and talents to use me in incredible ways to bring glory to His kingdom and touch the hearts of His children."
