Current programs include the following and can be tailored to event length and audience. Seeker-friendly programs are also available for audiences who are uncomfortable or unfamiliar with Biblical concepts and the Christian vocabulary.

Developing Gratitude for Personal Success: Whether in business, at home, or in social situations, gratitude is a key tool for navigating change, overcoming setbacks, and meeting the needs of others. It is also helpful in enjoying personal happiness and increased effectiveness in all areas of life.

- Learn the benefits of positive emotions, including gratitude
- Hear real and compelling examples of gratitude in action
- Learn practical and applicable tools for developing gratitude for greater personal success
- Discover what God's Word says about gratitude

Consider planning your next event with a Gratitude theme and ask about Kristen's activity ideas for a fun-filled and inspiring agenda!

His Side of the Looking Glass – Seeing Yourself as God Sees You:

By shedding perception of self, participants are encouraged to deepen their relationship with God as they begin to understand their noble purpose. Participants will:

- Embrace the difference between perception and reality
- Explore the concept of sin and forgiveness
- Understand God's noble purpose for their lives
- Receive encouragement for fulfilling their noble purpose
- Discover how Spiritual Gifts define their noble purpose
- Take action and become the person He sees

Testimonials:

Song of Songs Prayer Journey for Wives: God's intimate plan for marriage is no secret and is available to all. Song of Songs Prayer Journey for Wives is an exercise in seeking God's Word to understand His intimate plan for marriage, meditate on the promise of that plan, and pray God's blessing over your own marriage in an effort to live joyfully and united as one. This course takes participants through the Song of Songs scriptures, one by one, and encourages prayer of these scriptures over the participant's marriages in an effort to live happily ever after.

"I was really inspired by your talk. I am a naturally positive person and I spend a GREAT deal of my time with people who are not. Your message helped me realize that I need to increase my time around positive people in order to stay upbeat. Thank you." Gina

"I thought your (perspective) on marriage was so relevant. I printed a copy of your reminders to keep on my refrigerator so I could refer to it often. Thank you." Reading from Houston

"Kristen...loved your article Beyond Reproach. I never thought about how important 'appearances' are in protecting marriage. Thank you". Listening from California

"Kristen is an amazing speaker. Her presentation was organized and extremely informative. She captivated the audience with her vibrant personality and charisma!"

"Kristen has a heart for helping people develop and maintain an attitude of gratitude in their effort to experience deep satisfaction and success in all areas of their lives."

Statement of Faith:

I affirm:

- The Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God.
- The historic actuality of the virgin birth of our Lord Jesus Christ and His divine/human nature.
- The historic actuality of the miracles of our Lord Jesus Christ as conveyed to us in the pages of Holy Scripture.
- The efficacy of the substitutionary atonement of our Lord Jesus Christ for our sins.
- The historic actuality of the bodily resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ and His coming again.

Mission:

To provide Christian encouragement for women and help them grow in their understanding of God through a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ.
